CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1926

One thousand acres of cotton will be added to the Yuba county crop this year.

One of the best seasons in years is looked forward to by sheep men of Fresno county.

Septic tanks on Kings county farms are becoming more common. There are seventy-five in use today.

Plans are already being laid for the 1926 Valencia orange harvest in Tulare county, which harvest will be a very good one.

Allan Leslie, Porterville, Tulare county, grain broker, predicts a large grain crop for this section of Tulare county this season.

Fontana oranges again topped the New York auction sales market recently when they sold at a premium, bringing $5.30 a box.

In one year Ventura county has jumped from one of the weakest to one of the strongest farm-bureau counties of the state.

The Merced county farm bureau has made plans for the reception of over 2,000 visitors in Merced April 10, its annual dairy day.

New experiments on citrus root stock are to be undertaken at once at the Riverside Citrus experiment station of the University of California.

The March 1st condition of pasture for the entire state was about 90 per cent of a normal as compared to 92 per cent on the same date last year.

In order to provide a practical course in agriculture for high school students the board of education at Stockton has leased a sixty-acre farm.

The Olive Fruit company has closed a deal whereby it will take over the entire stock, supplies and lease of the Anaheim Valencia Growers association.

Optimism prevails among Ventura county farmers as a result of the February rains, and this is true of field crop men, range men and dairymen alike.

The J. J. Harrison place, near Yorba Linda, Orange County, consisting of twenty acres of Valencias, was sold recently. Consideration was said to be $55,000.

One of the greatest agricultural problems of California is provided by the ground squirrel. Not only is it a destructive crop agency, but a menace to health as well.

Data on the cost of producing and marketing peaches in Tulare county as well as on handling and canning them, is being gathered by L. W. Fluharty of the extension service.

The citizens of Los Angeles county are conducting a drive to eradicate certain noxious weeds which thrive in the district. Various civic organizations are aiding in this cleanup campaign.

In one week recently, twenty-nine carloads of artichokes, each containing five hundred crates, were shipped to eastern cities from San Luis Obispo, although it is still considered early for good production.

The asparagus shipping season is on, "grass" is rolling eastward by carloads from Imperial valley. The entire production of the valley is being marketed through the local asparagus growers association.

Approximately 300 acres in the Delano, McFarland, Wasco, Shafter, Lerdo and Weed Patch districts, in Kern county, has been planted to Sweet Spanish, Crystal Wax, Bermuda and Riverside varieties of onions.

A report on acreage of pasture land in California, compiled recently by E. E. Kaufman, statistician of the state department of agriculture, shows the condition of pasture in the entire state as being about 90 per cent normal on March 1.

A contract for 200 acres of tomatoes to be produced on property of the Merced Orchards company, near Shelling, Merced county is announced. It is the largest single acreage of tomatoes ever contracted in this section of California.

The S. A. Gerrard company has leased 320 acres at Westmoreland from L. H. Sherman, Los Angeles. The lease extends over a period of seven years. This makes close to 3,000 acres which the Gerrard concern controls in the Westmoreland district.

The Economic Food company of Fresno opened in Hanford, Kings county, its twenty-first store in the San Joaquin valley.

Farmers' wives in Stanislaus county plan to do bookkeeping for their husbands in an effort to put agriculture on a business basis.

The Great Western Power company of California has undertaken two large construction projects in the island territory of the Sacramento river.

Formal decision to erect a municipal swimming pool in the Gridley city park has been reached by the board of trustees of the city of Gridley, Butte county.

The Swayne and Hutchinson lumber companies, both of Oroville, Butte county, will commence spring operations of their local mills in a short time.

Representing an investment of $400,000, inclusive of the lots, the Hotel Marysville, a five-story brick structure, is rapidly nearing the occupancy stage.

A conference was held in Fresno March 26 and 27, with the object of formulating a sound agricultural program applicable to this state and adjacent territory.

Benjamin E. Page, president of the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles, and prominent in club circles, died at his home in Pasadena recently.

Dr. T. W. Tillotson, Calipatria, is experimenting with a reed-like plant from China on his ranch. The plant furnishes a fiber which may be used as a substitute for cotton.

Construction of a new hatchery, replacement of two others and an addition to the Mt. Shasta hatchery of the California Fish and Game commission were announced in Sacramento recently.

Building activity took a decided spurt in San Gabriel, Los Angeles county, when on one day permits were issued for twenty-two new dwellings the total valuation of which was placed at $140,000.

The city of Livingston, near Merced, Merced county, will soon boast its own chamber of commerce. Thirty-five merchants and professional men have pledged their support to the projected organization.

B. M. Eusey of Highland, San Bernardino county, has purchased the thirteen-acre J. B. Benson orange grove for a consideration of $42,500. This is more than $3,000 an acre, considered an exceptional price.

Rabbits, from the hutch to the time they adorn milady's shoulders fashioned into an exquisite wrap, were displayed recently at the opening of the Sierra Fur Farm, Montrose. Approximately 1,000 visitors attended.

Work on the new American Legion memorial building has commenced in Susanville, and will be rushed so that the structure may be completed before the annual state legion convention which is to be held here next August.

Mrs. Elizabeth Boedefeld, pioneer resident of Colusa county, is dead at the age of 73. She was born in New Orleans, but came across the isthmus of Panama and thence to California with her parents while yet a small child.

Building permits, totaling $38,500, were issued during the last month by the city of Watsonville building department. The largest permit for the month is for a packing house by N. L. Ruso and company. The estimated cost is $11,000.

Led by the "million-dollar" band of Aahmes Temple, 1,500 Oakland Shriners will visit Merced, April 17, for a banquet to be followed by a band concert and dance. The following day the visitors will journey to Exchequer to inspect the giant dam.

Isabel Victor, Santa Cruz, who was born in Santa Cruz 81 years ago and was baptized by the Franciscan friars in the old adobe mission of Santa Cruz, died recently. Her father was Robert King, an Englishman, and her mother, before marriage, was Stefana Juarez of an old California family.

BUNGO MEN CAUGHT

We were told that a number of our citizens listened to the plea of a couple of young men, who posed as seniors in C. U. H. S. and claimed to be working for scholarship in college by taking subscriptions for magazines. Eventually they were brought to account by some of those solicited making inquiries of school authorities.

It scarcely seems possible that this old game can still be worked, but Barnum seemed to be right when he said that the American public likes to be "buncoed," and etc. With several reliable parties in our town taking subscriptions for all the magazines that are published, and who are here to rectify any errors and see that the subscribers get their magazines, one wonders why these "fly-by-nights" find such easy victims.

The report has also come to us that a woman peddler, claiming to sell a Simon pure quality of goods and whose representations were not justified on a previous visit, is again canvassing in our midst. We have no personal knowledge of this, but we do strongly advise everyone to know what you are buying and the reliability of the agent before parting with good money.

That the largest shipments to ripe olives ever made from the Oroville district since the establishment of the industry in California were those of the past month, is the announcement of B. B. Meek, president of the Mount Ida and Elmhurst Olive companies.

One of Woodland's (Yolo county), oldest landmarks of other days, the Old Army, whose construction goes back to the earliest days of Woodland sixty years ago, is to be razed by order of the city council, following its condemnation as a fire trap. The building was a center of social activity in Woodland when the national guard was in its prime.

A great deal of activity is expected in lumbering in Modoc county during the 1926 season and sawmill men are already beginning their plans for the season's cut. With the almost certain railroad development promised for this region and the big demands for lumber consequent upon building operations now planned, the 1926 cut promises to be a heavy one.

A recommendation to the Washington officials requesting a greater number of men for enforcement of the prohibition law on land, and an increase in the coast guard fleet, was made recently by the Pacific Coast federal prohibition directors in a special conference called by Colonel Ned M. Green, of San Francisco, the prohibition administrator of northern California.

Governor Friend W. Richardson, recently was advised by the Kings county grand jury that it had adopted a resolution commending him for his action in appointing a crime commission to consider revision of criminal procedure in California. The grand jury will urge the legislators of that district to support any movement to remedy the faults of the existing system.

B. G. Roke, Lindsay, Tulare county, has installed new equipment in the Lindsay Producers Packing House company's plant which will amply provide for Valencia crops of the growers who in former years shipped through the Hillside house, destroyed by fire recently.

The Humboldt County Farmers association is considering forming a league to protect frogs. The farmers are determined to prevent the destruction of frogs in the county, which they deem helpful as well as valuable in ridding the country of cut worms and other insect pests.

Growing citrus fruits at unusually high altitudes has been successfully accomplished by two ranchers in the foothills near Hemet, Riverside county. Harry Bergman, Aguanga rancher twenty-five miles south of Hemet, has a small orange grove which bears fine quality fruit at an elevation of 2,500 feet above sea level.

During 1925 the Kings county co-operative association received 248,878 pounds of butter fat from dairymen members. The organization sells the cream to the highest bidder, and the Lucerne Cream and Butter company, Hanford, secured the association product for 1926.

At the home of D. W. Ravenscroft, in Petaluma, there is a number of choice loganberry vines which have been furnishing berries since Christmas. The berries are large and delicious and of delicate flavor. Ravenscroft also has blackberry vines bearing.

MUSICAL PRODIGES

The Halamick Trio, according to press notices received by the Press has made its debut in Chicago. Testimonials from many of the leading musical instructors were received by the young Misses. They are Joan Halamick, violinist, eight years old, Jvane Lowrie, pianist, eleven years old and Jean Halamick vocalist, seven years old. All are pupils of their father, Camille Halamick who is well known here. It is hoped that ere long Campbell and Santa Clara County music lovers may hear these prodigy solists. Adolph Weidig of the American Conservatory of music of Chicago, referring to the violinist and singer states:

"They show extraordinary musical gifts, but of this I am not surprised knowing the musical background from which they come—their grandfather, Josef Halamick, was an associate teacher with me here at the conservatory over twenty years. I have come in contact with many talented children during my years of teaching experience, but none any more charming and promising than these. I wish them all the benefits of a rich musical training which they so well deserve."

FIESTA DE LAS ROSAS ENTRY BLANKS AVAILABLE

Fiesta de las Rosas Headquarters has announced that entry blanks for the First Annual Floral Parade are now available. Already a number have been signed and it is expected that more will be returned shortly. Anybody desiring a blank may receive one from Fiesta Headquarters at 57 West Santa Clara Street, San Jose.

The parade has been divided into fifteen classes and forty trophies will be offered as prizes. The two divisions, Civic Bodies and Service Clubs, promise to be two of the finest features of the Floral Parade. A number of entries have been indicated and it is expected that very beautiful floats will be in line when the parade starts to move on May 22nd.

CONCERT AT UNION

The Pomona College Women's Glee Club will give a concert at the Union School Hall at the intersection of Union Avenue and the Los Gatos Almaden Road, on Tuesday evening, April 6th.

This Glee Club is known all over the state, and a large attendance is expected.

Planting time is here, and while Walter B. Hadley, San Bernardino county horticultural inspector, does not believe setting out of fruit trees in the Redlands district will be as heavy as for several past years, still considerable planting will be done. The heaviest planting will be in the Yucaipa section where pears, almonds and peaches are being set out.

The Poultry Producers of central California, a co-operative marketing organization composed of 2,500 egg producers in central California, sent to markets in the eastern part of the United States in the year 1925 about 10,000,000 dozen eggs, for which they received nearly $4,000,000 according to a statement issued recently.

During February, the shipment of perishable produce from Brawley, Imperial county was somewhat lighter than in the month preceding. February shipments included one car of squash, two of grapefruit, four of peas, six of spinach, sixteen of cabbage, ninety-two of greens, and 1,137 of lettuce.

W. A. Schaffer of Van Nuys, Los Angeles county is experimenting with the growing of cucumbers under glass. He secured the seed of some special varieties from the east and the results he has obtained have been very encouraging. He believes he can produce two crops in a year. The first crop was planted on New Year's day and the first picking was made February 10. He has been picking from thirty-five to forty dozen crates every other day and the Los Angeles markets have taken them all at good prices.

SANTA CLARA COUNTY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS AT CAMPBELL

A very successful meeting of the Santa Clara County Federation of Women's clubs was held in the library and community rooms of the library building in Campbell, Friday, March 26th.

The morning session was devoted to business, reports of officers and presidents, with a short humorous reading by Mrs. H. C. Smith.

All of the County Officers but one were present and for part of the day several of the "higher ups," were honored guests. Mrs. Wm. Lee Sales of Petaluma, president of the San Francisco District; Mrs. E. J. Wales, state recording secretary, Mrs. Hamilton Riggins, first state vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Goodrich, state chairman of American homes. Mrs. Aaron Schloss, general federation director for California and Mrs. Anna Saylor of Berkeley.

Mrs. Ralston Alison, on behalf of the Country Woman's Club welcomed the visitors, although she had had the misfortune to sprain her ankle during the early forenoon.

Promptly at 12:30 the guests were seated at tables in the social room and a delicious three course luncheon served. A large committee had been thoroughly organized and the work carefully allotted. As the club has no money for such affairs, the food was entirely donated by the members and the work done by them.

The blossom festival time had been the inspiring motif and the hall was beautiful with spring flowers. Dainty butterfly place cards bore greetings from the club and the luncheon dishes carried out the same motif in the arrangement and decoration of each course. At the close of the luncheon, Mrs. R. H. Hyde, accompanied by Mrs. G. S. Robson, and Mrs. L. J. Carbone sang the following song, written by Mrs. E. R. Kennedy, "It's Blossom Time."

FAREWELL PARTIES

Mrs. J. C. Ainsley, Mrs. E. G. Ainsley and Mrs. W. N. Lloyd were hostesses at two delightful affairs this past week, at the beautiful new home of Mrs. Ainsley on Johnson and Hamilton Avenues.

Miss Joan Ainsley was the complimented guest at a charmingly appointed luncheon on Friday, when a group of young people were invited to say farewell and bon voyage to the guest of honor.

Thursday afternoon the same ladies entertained a company at bridge for Mrs. F. V. Perrott, who has also left for England.

Yesterday, the directors of the Home of Benevolence, of whom Mrs. Ainsley is one, were her guests at another delightful function, and next week she will have the fourth in her series of parties.

One of the very pleasant features of these affairs has been the opportunity to see this wonderful home with its beautiful furnishings and perfect appointments.

SCHOOL ELECTION

School elections passed off quietly last week the new members for the union grammar board, E. F. Porter of Meridian and A. W. Wellington, of Hamilton being elected without oppositions. Dr. A. B. Townsend of Cambrian was re-elected to the high school board over Harry Barnes of Cambrian by a large majority, 186 to 85.

L. F. Sherlock was re-elected on the Cambrian grammar board and J. M. Ray re-elected to the Moreland district board. The vote was light in all sections owing to lack of registration in time to vote.

Do you know it's Blossom Time in our vale,
Buttercups and Columbine on every trail,
In the valley here below
Prune trees blossom white as snow,

Ah, the earth is all aglow,
In our vale,
Oh fairy bloom
Oh fragrance rare,
In all the world
None can compare
We lift our hearts
In joyous praise
For Santa Clara's Blossom days
Do you know that poppies blow in our vale,
Golden Chalcids that glow on hill and dale
But the sight that charms our eyes,
Maker of earth a paradise
Is the prune bloom that we prize
Sivory and frail

During the afternoon, Mrs. Goodrich talked on the work of the Home Department, Mrs. Schloss on the General Federation and others brought various messages.

Several resolutions were adopted:

Resolutions endorsing universal membership; recommended that state president and general federation remain same as now, two persons; pledged support to suppress crime, each club to form a study group on crime cause; resolution opposing race track gambling; opposed to referendum conducted by newspapers or straw ballots; recommending that a Bible be in every public library; copies of these resolutions be sent to district resolutions committee; a resolution thanking Country Woman's club for luncheon and entertainment and sympathy to Mrs. Ralston Alison, the president in her accident.

The report of the nominating committee was also accepted.

President, Mrs. J. W. Nixon, San Jose Woman's Club; first vice president, Mrs. F. G. Frink, Palo Alto Woman's club; second vice president, Mrs. Mary Watts, Mountain View club; recording secretary, Mrs. Herbert Stockton, San Jose Woman's club; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lydia Butler, We and Our Neighbors' club; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie W. Jackson, Santa Clara Woman's club; auditor, Mrs. J. H. Barnhart, Palo Alto Woman's club.

The musical numbers of the afternoon program were furnished by Campbell young people and were all greatly appreciated. Miss Katherine Wood played two piano solos, Miss Margaret Pardee sang two pretty spring songs, and Mrs. Bernice Bogart Heizen played two violin numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Dolga.

PAINFUL INJURY

Mrs. Ralston Alison was unfortunate as to turn her ankle by slipping on the floor of the library hall Friday morning. The injured member was bound up at the hospital and later in the day X-Rays were taken. These showed a bad sprain and torn ligaments, which will necessitate a long rest. The patient is resting more comfortably now that the first intense pain is reduced and she has recovered somewhat from the nervous shock resulting from its happening in the midst of such a busy day.

The Southern Pacific has purposely delayed the repair of Campbell Avenue crossing until such time as new steel was needed and a permanent job could be made of it. The track crew has been busy this week laying extra heavy steel rails set in a deep bed of crushed granite for base. When completed this crossing gives promise of being one of the best ones on the division and one worth while waiting for.

Auto Hosts One-Sixth as Great as U. S. Population

IT'S a far cry from the full skirts, wasp waists and leg o' mutton sleeves of twenty-five years ago, but we have traveled also a long way from the two-cylinder gas wagon of 1900 to the high-powered motors speeding over our highways today, declares the Stewart-Warner Safety Council.

A quarter of a century ago there was one automobile for every 9,500 people in the United States. Ten years ago there was one automobile for every 33 people, while today the motor population is one-sixth as large as the human population, or one car to every six people. This rapid growth has put the automobile as foremost among American industries, but it has also produced a fearful menace to the public, points out the Safety Council which has for its purpose the prevention of automobile accidents. A vigorous campaign of public education must be pushed if annual rate of automobile fatalities is to be reduced from 22,000.

The February report of standings Fresno county farm bureau egg laying contest at Selma shows an increase in production, says L. E. Williams, in charge of the plant. Practically every bird in the contest is laying satisfactorily.

The development of avocado culture in Whittier district, Los Angeles county, which includes North Whittier Heights, Rideout Heights and La Habra Heights, will be shown at the exposition of the Progress club in Whittier May 3 to 9.

RICHARDSON HAS MADE GOOD

The Los Angeles Express which supported Governor Stephens in 1922 is now strong for Governor Richardson and in the following editorial asks that he become a candidate for re-election:

"While the primary election at which candidates will be selected for governor still is several months distant, coming not before next August, nevertheless it is high time for the people of California to set seriously to contemplating the political needs of the hour, and to formulate ideas as to governmental policies and candidates.

"The office of governor of course is one of vital importance. The chief executive more directly affects the character of progress throughout the state than any other officer. The people want an orderly government. They want a governor who stands for rigid economy, for humane, progressive legislation, for law enforcement; a governor who has the courage to uphold the integrity of the state against those pernicious influences which ever are at work to destroy the foundations of society.

"The Evening Express feels that in the person of Governor Friend W. Richardson California possesses such an executive.

"Governor Richardson's administration has been free from the slightest lapse into official dereliction, and taxpayers have had no cause for worry that public moneys were being wasted or improperly applied. Politicians have attempted to becloud the public mind with charges that the governor's rigid economy program, undertaken and carried through for the sake of saving the taxpayer's money, would prove injurious to various departments and institutions of the state, and in particular to the public school system. But the test of time has shown how groundless were the charges.

"The public schools of the state never fared better than they have in the Richardson administration, and not a single governmental agency has suffered as a result of the practical economies which the governor has insisted should be practiced in every department over which he exercised control. On the contrary, it may justly be claimed, and the condition of the schools and other institutions and departments of the state government support the claim, that the economies practiced have resulted in increased efficiency and improved service.

"As yet Governor Richardson has given no intimation as to whether or not he will stand for re-election. The governor probably would be pleased to retire to private life, with the satisfaction of a work well done. But his work is not done. He ought to consent to continue on the job until the policies which he inaugurated are fully effected.

"This sentiment, we believe, is shared by thoughtful citizens everywhere. But it is important, that the sentiment be made vocal. The wish of the people ought to be expressed so they may be heard by Governor Richardson. The Evening Express therefore takes this opportunity to make known its views, and to urge upon the governor its conviction that it is his duty to the state to set aside and sacrifice personal inclination for the public welfare. The Express feels Governor Richardson still has work to do, and that California needs him for another term in the governorship."

FATHER TO THE SON

The father of Calvin Coolidge undoubtedly had much to do with the shaping of the destiny of the son. We may discount much of the elaboration which feature writers are prone to inject when their subjects are high estates or great personages, and still see the sturdiness of character, frugality and industry instilled by the father. This emphasized the future of Calvin Coolidge. The father did not expect Calvin to become President. He builded for character—for the man—which means more than being a president. The high office is but an incident in the lives of the father and son. The goal was not the White House: it was manhood.

Every county from Sacramento to Los Angeles will be represented in the eighteenth annual Raisin Festival, to be held in Fresno, April 15, according to T. R. La Senay, manager of California's big annual agricultural celebration. Sacramento, Stockton, Modesto, Merced, Madera, Dinuba, Hanford, Bakersfield and Los Angeles have either made entries or the counties in which they are located have notified the Festival association they would take part in the spring fete.

The core of the famous "Baldwin No. 25," the deepest well ever bored, has been donated to the geology department of Stanford University for experimental work, through the assistance of Joseph Jenson, geologist of the Pacific Oil company. This acquisition is one of the most valuable the oil geology department at Stanford has ever made, as it provides a complete sample of oil bearing formations of the Los Angeles Basin of country.

Cats Desert One Ship, Try Trip in Another

Baltimore.—Sea cats have their likes and dislikes and determine what ship they will remain on by the ship as well as the treatment they receive from the crew, says R. J. Warren, radio operator aboard the steamship Cold Harbor.

Cats will make a voyage on a ship and, discovering they are not satisfied with it, will change to another vessel on reaching port, he says. It is not unusual for a tabby to sail for Europe on the Cold Harbor and return on the West Coast, he quoted as an example.

Cats bent on changing ships are interesting, he says. He has watched one walk slowly up the gangway and eye the decks from the top of it. All looking well, the next step is the galley. If an inspection of the galley is satisfying, he studies every inch of the decks. Then he either walks down the gangway again or else curls up in a place that he will claim as his bed on the voyage.

turn for the cannery season.

"FATHER" STRAY ANSWERS SUMMONS

George N. Stray, who has been ill for the past three years passed away at his home on North Second Street Wednesday morning.
He suffered a paralytic stroke from which he never recovered, and finally succumbed after a series of more or less severe attacks.

Mr. Stray was born February
10, 1849 in East Evans, N. Y.
He moved to Ludington, Mich., in 1870 where two years later he was married to Hattie L. Hutchins.

For twelve years he was with the Danaher and Melendy Lumber Co., in that city and for the following twelve years was cashier of First National Bank. In 1914 he and his wife came to San Jose, and since that time had lived in Campbell and the Willows. Last fall he exchanged homes with Raston Alison and since then has lived beside his son.

Of immediate surviving relatives there are his devoted wife, a son, Walter H. Stray and grandchildren, George and Helen, of Campbell. Simple services were held Thursday evening from the San Jose Undertaking parlors, and immediately after, Mrs. and Mrs. W. H. Stray left with the remains for Michigan, where interment will be made by the Masonic lodge of Ludington of which he was a past master.

"Father" Stray, as he was lovingly called by his many friends was one of the worlds finest of men. A devoted Christian, a perfect gentleman, and a fine type of business man and citizen, he won the respect and friendship of all with whom he came in contact.

The first report of his illness was a personal grief to hundreds of friends and his condition ever since has been a matter of concern to them all. Although extending every sympathy to his relatives they cannot grieve that this loyal Christian spirit has been released from its body of suffering, and is happy in the realms above.

Field's Takes Paint Agency

The Field's Store in Campbell has secured the franchise for the sale of DuPont Paints and Varnishes and also the famous DuPont "Duco."

Mr. Field's states these products are made by E. I. DuPont, De Nemours Co., Inc., of Willmington, Delaware, whose affairs have been so closely interwoven with the growth of our country, beginning with the establishing of their first powder mill in 1773.
Today, the Du Pont Co., is the leading chemical organization of the country. It was they who developed and brought out the new "Duco" that has so completely revolutionized the automobile finishing industry. Duco is the finish that "dries fast and lasts."

Today the Paint and Varnish department of this company is one of their main divisions, and in connecting with the fastest growing Paint and Varnish line in the industry, Mr. Field thinks he is offering his friends and customers the best the market affords in the Paint and Varnish line.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Abbott and children went to Livermore Thursday and will spend the remainder of the week-end at the Mountain home of their friends
Mr. and Mrs. Hanson.

Remember the election Mon.,
April 5, to choose a fire commissioner. Horace Lea and Chas.
Shumway are both candidates.
The voting will be done at the Fire House.

Mrs. Susan Castle, who was living with Mr. and Mrs. C. H.
Fox in Roselawn, passed away Saturday at the advanced age of 84 years. Funeral services were held Monday and interment made at Los Gatos. She was born in Illinois, came to Campbell over thirty years ago and lived here for many years, part of the time with "Aunt Poor." Older residents will remember both of these dear old ladies, members of the Congregational church and most enthusiastic workers in the W. C. T.
U.

Increase in the poultry and dairy industries in Sonoma county is causing a steady rise in the amount of grain brought in from the Sacramento and the San Joaquin districts.

The poultry department of the Sonoma county farm bureau has adopted a very comprehensive program for poultry improvement work in Sonoma county for 1926.

More than five acres in small lots in scattered areas of Merced county, near Merced, Livingston and Atwater, will be the field of investigation to determine the feasibility of tobacco production in this section of California. It was announced in Merced recently.

Rough estimates of the apricot and peach crops in the Pomona district, Los Angeles county, indicate that the yields will be a little smaller than those of last year, but good prices are anticipated.

Canada's Wealth in Copper

Copper is mined chiefly in Canada in northern Ontario, largely in the Sudbury district, and in several districts of British Columbia. In 1886 the total output amounted to 3,505,000 pounds, and it was more than doubled in six years. Copper was known to exist in the Sudbury district as early as 1856, but practically no attention was paid to it until 1883, when the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway was being constructed. Soon nickel was found, and the mining of the latter has gone ahead of copper mining. In 1923 the output of copper in Canada amounted to about 88,000,000 pounds. One year's output of copper in Canada has reached the value of about $30,000,000.

ON HER LAST LAP

"It looks like Miss Passay would end her race for a man with the old geezer she's just caught."

"Yes, she's on her last lap, I'd say."

At the annual meeting of the California Cotton Growers association, held in Los Angeles March 8, the status of the industry was considered at length and a joint committee of the agricultural and industrial departments of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce made a report on the outlook and conditions which exist today in the business of growing, marketing and manufacturing cotton, so far as California is concerned.

One of the Redlands' (San Bernardino county) finest peach orchards is vanishing as most of the J. H. Hale trees of the Redlands Heights Ranch are being taken out. These trees were planted to provide some income until orange trees came into bearing. They have served their purpose and where there were once over 200 acres in that fruit there are now only two or three dozen acres in peaches on the ranch.

Within the past two years a dozen large poultry plants have been established at Mentone, San Bernardino county, and several smaller ones are growing rapidly. The poultrymen say that the soil and climatic conditions here are ideal. It is estimated that there are now about 30,000 hens in a section where two or three years ago there were but a few chickens on each ranch.

The growing of mushrooms in Merced county is expected to gain impetus from the excellent results secured by John Tranner, San Joaquin river farmer, learned from express company officials at Merced. Tranner has shipped approximately 450 boxes of the mushrooms, totaling 5,000 pounds. His returns have been excellent.

Golden State

News of Interest to All

Huntington Park, Los Angeles county, is now using a "Made in Huntington Park" street marker for boundary lines across the principal streets forming the pedestrian lanes. The marker, which is a product of the Western Washer Manufacturing company of that city, is a circular steel disc, three inches across and one-quarter of an inch in thickness. In the center of this disc is a hole through which is inserted a three-inch steel pin. This is driven into the paving, forming the lane boundaries.

Chester L. Gorrill, well known farmer of Pacheco valley, Shasta county, has made a liberal donation to the Anderson union high school through the "sale" of two tractors, for $1 each. The tractors were "purchased" for the farm mechanics shop and have proven valuable additions to the mechanical equipment. A regular bill of sale was executed and given to the school by Gorrill, who received besides the $2 involved in the deal, an expression of appreciation from the school for his generosity.

Setting what is believed to be a construction record in southland building circles, a construction company, during the past few weeks set 154 pilings in the Santa Monica beach sands without the aid of a pile-driver. The pilings are to serve as a stormproof foundation for the esplanade of the new Gables Beach club now under construction. The esplanade will be completed by May 18.

California was represented at the National Safety Conference at Washington, D. C., by two delegates, Mrs. D. E. F. Easton and Mrs. R. L. Cardiff, of the California Public Safety Conference, who were appointed by Governor Richardson. This organization, in which 270,000 California women are enrolled, is working to make highway conditions safer for motorists. The campaign slogan is "S. O. S."—Safety or Sorrow.

A study of weather reports for the Palos Verdes estates for the last ten years shows that residents may be certain of at least 355 days of sunshine each year, entire freedom from recurrent wind storms, and absence of frost below the 700-foot level. Records were kept by Dr. Ford Carpenter, meteorologist of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce, at eleven different stations on the Palos Verdes project during the years 1914 to 1920.

An injunction suit designed to test the right of the state department of agriculture to destroy shrubs and trees in Sacramento to eradicate the citrus white fly, a dangerous fruit pest, has been filed in the Superior Court by Ivor F. Torrey. Torrey, a local homeowner, has asked the court to restrain the state department from destroying a privet hedge and an orange tree on his property.

The new $60,000 plunge at San Fernando, Los Angeles county, to be one of the finest in southern California, is beginning to take form. Excavation for the pool has been completed and the pouring of concrete is well under way. The sum of $4,500 has been expended in white tile, which will ornament the walls and floors of the plunge. The place will be formerly opened by May 1.

Glenn county laid claim to the honor of having the oldest citizen clerk in point of service in California. He is W. H. Sale, who assumed office in 1891, when the county was formed and has been re-elected regularly ever since. The claimants conceded second place to County Clerk R. L. Carter, of Trinity county, who has been in office since 1893.

Though bread proverbially has been termed "the staff of life," the consumption by the average Californian is scarcely a paltry slice per meal. Statisticians of the state department of agriculture have discovered that the annual per capita ration is seventy-two one-pound loaves, or about one-fifth of a loaf per day.

The members of the First Baptist church, at Redlands, San Bernardino county, have decided to start building the first unit on what will eventually be one of the finest church institutions in the west. The first unit is for a church school building and will cost about $75,000 exclusive of the furnishings.

B. H. Mace, Redding, supervisor of the Trinity National Forest, returning from a week in the California National Forest, where he assisted Supervisor Coffman in taking a deer census, reports that estimated deer population is a little less than 40,000 the number found three years ago.

The citizen's 1926 military camps, which will be conducted at Del Monte, Fort Winfield Scott and Fort MacArthur, San Pedro, will open June 27 and continue until July 6. It was announced a short time ago at Ninth Corps Area headquarters in the Presidio in San Francisco.

Ventura's first modern apartment-hotel is being rapidly rushed to completion. The approximate cost is $88,000.

The annual conference of the Millwork Institute of California was held in Stockton, San Joaquin county, recently.

Preliminary organization of the Siskiyou County Sportsmen's association was accomplished at Dunsmuir, Siskiyou county, by representative sportsmen throughout the county. The new organization will be affiliated with the Associated Sportsmen Association of California.

Miss Mary B. Vail, 65, former member of the faculties of Mills College and Columbia University, died at Fresno, recently. She had been conducting experiments with raisins for the Sun Maid Raisin growers until stricken ill two months ago.

On petition of more than fifty residents of the east side, the Willows, Glenn county, trustees adopted an ordinance forbidding the establishment of a cemetery within the city limits. The question long had been a source of bitter controversy.

Adobe construction for farm dwellings is being advocated by L. W. Taylor, Kern county farm adviser, in addresses before farm centers. He argues that adobe houses are cooler in summer and warmer in winter and that with modern construction they make neat dwellings at a cost lower than for frame buildings.

P. V. Berkeley a member of the Board of Supervisors, at Colusa, Colusa county, since 1911, is accredited with being the oldest living native son of Colusa county. He was born in the old Colusa House, now known as the Riverside hotel, in 1865. His father was a member of the county Board of Supervisors at that time. Berkeley has lived in the county all his life.
